

The Town of Jaffrey is responsible for the highlighted items on this picture.

The customer is responsible for the integrity of everything else shown (pipe from curb stop valve to water meter and everything inside the residence other than the water meter).

The customer is also responsible for providing a clean, dry, above freezing and accessible location for the water meter.

